LOCATION

Kirkcaldy is a town and former royal burgh in Fife, on the east coast of Scotland. It is about 12 miles north of Edinburgh and 28 miles southwest of Dundee. The town had a recorded population of 49,460 in 2011, making it Fife's second-largest settlement and the 11th most populous settlement in Scotland.

The town is a major service centre for the central Fife area. It has a swimming pool, theatre, museum and art gallery, three public parks and an ice rink

The A92, which connects Dunfermline to the west with Glenrothes and Dundee to the north, passes immediately north of Kirkcaldy. The A910 road connects it to the western and central parts of the town.

The subjects are located on the western side of the High Street offering a prime retail pitch with high levels of daily footfall.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a mid terraced retail unit formed over the ground floor and first floor of a two storey building.

The ground floor comprises of retail area, back shop, rear vestibule and w.c.

The first floor offers staff area/kitchen.

FLOOR AREAS

From sizes taken during our inspection we calculate the subject property, measured in accordance with the RICS Code of Measurement Practice (second edition, January 2018) to extend to the following approximate net internal area (NIA):

67m²/721ft²

PLANNING

All queries in relation to redevelopment/ reconfiguration of the subjects should be addressed to Fife Council Planning Department.
