LOCATION

Perth is a city in central Scotland, located on the banks of the River Tay. It is the administrative centre of Perth and Kinross council area and the historic county of Perthshire. According to the preliminary 2011 census results Perth, including its immediate suburbs, has a population in the region of 50,000.

The strength of Perth's economy lies in its diversity, with a balance of large companies, the public sector, a broad range of small and medium-sized enterprises and many self-employed business people. The development in renewable energy, insurance, manufacturing, leisure, health and transport is stimulating employment.

Perth's city centre is situated to the west of the banks of the River Tay. From a local context the property is situated on the southern side of Friarton Road on the southern shore of River Tay and forming part of Lower Friarton Industrial Estate.

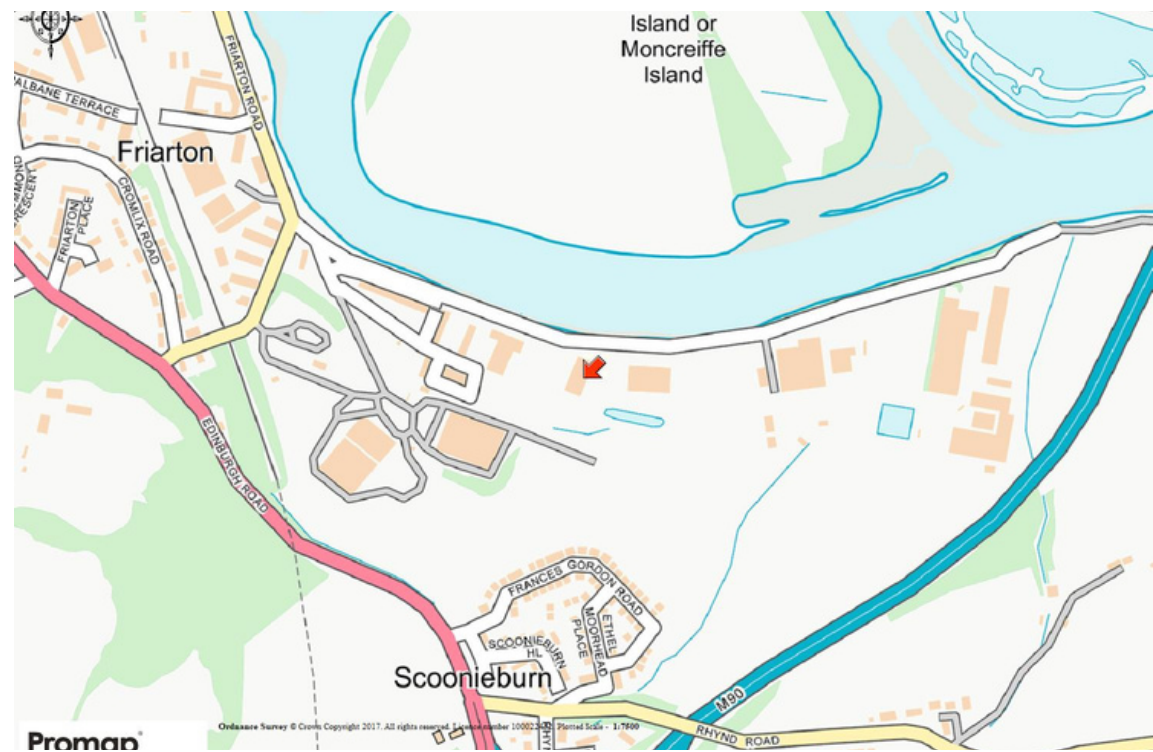

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a ground floor mid terraced industrial unit. The property is of steel portal frame construction with brick and insulated profiled sheet walls whilst being surmounted by a pitched roof overlaid in insulated profiled sheeting with interspersed translucent panelling.

Internally, the subjects provide an open plan workshop area, office, tea prep area and w.c. Externally, the property benefits from a large electric roller shutter door and separate pedestrian door. The development benefits from a large private car parking area with good turning space.

PROPOSAL

Lease from £8,000 per annum for a new FRI lease.
