LOCATION

Stirling is a city in central Scotland. The market town, surrounded by rich farmland, grew up connecting the royal citadel, the medieval old town with its merchants and tradesmen, the bridge and the port. Located on the River Forth, Stirling is the administrative centre for the Stirling council area, and is traditionally the county town of Stirlingshire.

In 2002, as part of Queen Elizabeth II's Golden Jubilee, Stirling was granted city status. Its Castle and Old Town meet the cutting-edge culture of a contemporary University city.

Stirling is well located in central Scotland being almost equidistant between Glasgow, Edinburgh and Perth. The city benefits from good transport links to include a mainline railway, bus depot and easy access onto the Motorway network.

From a local context the property is on the northern side of Upper Craigs near its junctions with Port Street.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a mid terraced retail unit formed over the ground floor of a traditional three storey building. The property has recently been refurbished to a modern standard.

Internally, the subjects provide open plan retail/takeaway area together with a rear kitchen area and w.c. The property has been fitted out to a high standard and includes pizza oven, range, oven and extraction hood.

THE BUSINESS

The Brindisi comprises a pizzeria, fish and chicken bar. The business has been operated by the current owner successfully for a number of decades as is only for sale due to the owners wish to retire.

The business shows good profit margins and is fully equipped with all the equipment being owned outright. The business benefits from a license for the sale of alcohol for consumption off the premises.

There is good scope to improve turnover and profit by opening longer hours, boosting online presence and taking advantage of the late license (3am).
