LOCATION

Stirling is widely regarded as one of Scotland's busiest and most popular tourist and business locations and benefits from a superb location, allowing easy access by road and rail to all other major business centres throughout the country.

The city lies approximately 26 miles northeast of Glasgow and around 38 miles northwest of Edinburgh and provides access to 75% of Scotland's population within a 48 mile radius.

The subjects are located on the eastern side of Pitt Terrace close to its junction with Wellgreen Road.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a lower ground office suite contained within a 3-storey semi-detached building of traditional stone construction.

Internally the suite is accessed through a communal ground floor entrance vestibule. Facilities include communal w.c's, kitchen and access to a shared meeting room (If required). The suite is self contained and decorated in a contemporary style.

FLOOR AREAS

From sizes taken during our inspection we calculate the subject property, measured in accordance with the RICS Code of Measurement Practice (second edition, January 2018) to extend to the following approximate net internal area (NIA):

34.6m²/372ft²
