LOCATION

Leven is an expanding coastal town on the shores of the Firth of Forth and forms part of the Levenmouth area which has a resident population in the region of 25,000 persons. It is approximately 10 miles north east of Kirkcaldy. The town is the main commercial centre for the Levenmouth area which consists of a range of small towns and villages, including Buckhaven, Kennoway, Methil and Windygates.

There are good road links to the area with the A92 link road approximately 12 km. This link provides dual carriageway access to the Scottish motorway network. There is also a regular bus service to the area and surrounding centres of employment. The town of Leven provides good transport, shopping and educational facilities. Local employers include Diageo.

The subjects are located on the eastern side of Durie Street at its junction with School Lane.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a ground floor office within a single storey extension building of brick and rendered construction.

Internally the subjects comprise an entrance/reception area, large main office, inner hall, fully fitted kitchen, shower/w.c & disabled w.c facilities.

The property has recently undergone extensive refurbishment works including significant electrical works carried out. The property benefits from 3 phase power, CCTV and a fire alarm system.

Externally there is a substantial area of ground including parking for approximately 15 cars.
