LOCATION

Throsk is a hamlet in the Stirling council area of Scotland. It lies on the A905 road east of Fallin close to the River Forth.

Stirling is a city in central Scotland. Located on the River Forth, Stirling is the administrative centre for the Stirling council area, and is traditionally the county town of Stirlingshire. Modern Stirling is a centre for local government, higher education, tourism, retail, and industry. The 2011 census recorded the population of the city as 45,750; the wider Stirling council area has a population of about 91,000. The City is reputed to be the third fastest growing area of Scotland in terms of population.

Stirling is well located in central Scotland being almost equidistant between Glasgow, Edinburgh and Perth. The city benefits from good transport links to include a mainline railway, bus depot and easy access onto the Motorway network.

The subjects are located within Bandeath Industrial Estate which forms the main Industrial Estate within Throsk.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a single storey industrial building of steel portal frame construction overlaid in insulated profiled metal sheeting.
