LOCATION

Kirkcaldy is a town and former royal burgh in Fife, on the east coast of Scotland. It is about 12 miles north of Edinburgh and 28 miles southwest of Dundee. The town had a recorded population of 50,288 in 2021. The town is a major service centre for the central Fife area. It has a swimming pool, theatre, museum and art gallery, three public parks and an ice rink. The A92, which connects Dunfermline to the west with Glenrothes and Dundee to the north, passes immediately north of Kirkcaldy. The A910 road connects it to the western and central parts of the town.

Dysart is a historic coastal town just east of Kirkcaldy that now forms part of the wider urban area. It is known for its preserved harbour, traditional buildings and industrial heritage, and remains a popular visitor spot and filming location.

The subjects are located on the North Eastern side of Quarry Brae close to its junction with Windmill Road and Loughborough Road.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a ground floor scout hall contained within a detached 1 storey building of concrete panel construction surmounted by a pitched and tiled roof.

Internally the property provides a large open plan hall/studio, 2 office spaces/store rooms, kitchen facilities and both male and female w.c facilities.

The property offers the opportunity to purchase a large site with a Scout Hall in situ which would suit alternative uses such as gym/training club/dance studio subject to planning.

PROPOSAL

Offers over £60,000 are invited for the heritable freehold interest.

FLOOR AREAS

From sizes taken during our inspection we calculate the subject property, measured in accordance with the RICS Code of Measurement Practice (second edition, January 2018) to extend to the following approximate gross internal area (GIA):
