Blairgowrie is one of the largest towns in Perthshire, sitting to the North of the city of Perth, and North-West of Dundee, on the banks of The River Ericht, with The Blairgowrie and The Glens catchment area having an expanding population of circa 15,000 people.

Blairgowrie is the gateway to Glenshee and The Cairngorms Snow Roads, and caters for year round sports including skiing, golfing and mountain biking. The surrounding area is the soft fruit centre of Scotland.

Blairgowrie has a thriving town centre with an unusually wide range of independent shops, craft workshops, restaurants and pubs. National retailers include Tesco, Sainsbury's and The Coop. The town's centrepiece is the Wellmeadow, a grassy triangle which hosts regular markets and outdoor entertainment.

From a local context the property is situated on the western side of Leslie Street at its junctions with the Ericht Lane.
